One of the users who quit Roblox because of this issue is a user named "Ezthero," a former moderator for ROBLOX's forums. Some others have also left the website after they learned that ROBLOX would get more money from their games if they did not sell them. However, Roblox has said that they do pay royalties to their users but only to those with large fanbases who are able to earn a lot from their games.

I guess the only reason I still play Roblox is because it's a free game and that I don't have to pay for anything. After all, what's the point of saving up your money if you have to spend it all just to try and get on a game you really want to play? There are many games out there that arent free like Minecraft, but at least they give you some sort of advantage. For example, Minecraft gives you tools which can help you dig more efficiently and quickly. But Roblox doesn't provide any sort of help or assistance towards the gameplay itself. And it's not like Minecraft was designed with children in mind; it was created for adults.

On August 4th 2021, it was revealed that many well known ROBLOX users made fake accounts in order to copy their friends' progress. These fake accounts had the same username and picture as the original account owner but had no friends. Once these fake accounts gained a good amount of currency, they would join a game then buy the maximum amount of slots possible. The real account owner would notice that their account was missing and look at the fake profile's profile. While there were no friends, there were tons of transactions for items such as a $100-$150 purchase for 2021 robux. This could have been used to raise their reputation and potentially, make them more money.

In 2021, ROBLOX held its first annual "Builders Open Tournament" during March Madness of that year. The tournament features five games and has a prize pool of $100,000 (prize money to be awarded at the end of the tournament). The tournament also gave away 5 million Robux (10x), which was enough to purchase an Xbox One S.

I currently have a spreadsheet that has various amounts listed for different offers and payment methods. I am currently using Paypal as my main source of income, but I am considering switching to a more reliable service like Bitcoin or Amazon gift cards. Make sure that you always use a different email address for each of the sites you are selling your items on so that they do not go straight into your inbox or spam folder. I don't want people knowing that I am using this method as these will probably give me a bad reputation.

Players could also get banned by moderators for sending unwanted messages to other users. A moderator could then ban a player's account for spamming other accounts or trying to bypass chat filters. There are other forms of trolling which can be found on Roblox today.
